Tree by Mai Rafferty

You know all their secrets, their hopes and their fears,
Their singing and chirping music to ears.
You share their excitement, as the building begins,
You close your eyes to the ones that upend.
Twigs, feathers and wool, flying through your branches.
Time quickly passes, the babies arrive.
The wind sings a lullaby, to close tiny eyes.
The evening settles, the first star appears,
The earth breaths a sigh and the peace of the night,
Enfolds you. Dear Tree
